Participation in Rodeo is voluntary and has inherent dangers, hazards and risks (collectively Risks). Injuries resulting from participating in Rodeo are a common occurrence. Some of the Risks of participating in Rodeo include:

(a) the propensity of any animal to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm or death to persons on or around them and to potentially collide with, bite or kick other animals, people or objects;

(b) the unpredictability of an animal's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement, tremors, vibrations, unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals and hazards such as subsurface objects;

(c) the potential for other participants to behave in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to themselves or others, including failing to act within their abilities to maintain control over an animal; and

(d) the possibility of unknown or unrecognized defects or hazards in, or misuse of, equipment or facilities.

DECLARATION OF PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN

I am the parent or legal guardian of the 4-H member named above.

I consent to my 4-H member's participation in the Rodeo.

My 4-H member has viewed the 4-H Rodeo Safety Videos available at <https://aces.nmsu.edu/4h/4-h-rodeo.html> or has participated in a live in-person 4-H rodeo safety course.

My 4-H member is of sufficient physical and emotional maturity, and good judgment to participate safely in the Rodeo (with or without disability accommodation).

ON BEHALF OF MY 4-H MEMBER, I FREELY ACCEPT AND FULLY ASSUME ALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR ALL RISKS AND POSSIBILITIES OF PERSONAL INJURY, DEATH, PROPERTY DAMAGE OR LOSS RESULTING FROM MY 4-H MEMBER'S PARTICIPATION IN THE RODEO.

I have carefully read and understand this 4-H Consent and Assumption of Risk for Participation in Rodeo Activities. I agree to all of the terms above, both personally and on behalf of my 4-H member as a minor participant.

New Mexico 4-H Youth Development Program & San Juan County 4-H Rodeo Adult Code of Conduct Contract

According to New Mexico State 4-H Policies and Procedures all participants (members, leaders, parents and other attendees) at 4-H activities at any level will adhere to high standards of personal behavior and conduct. All 4-H youth and adult volunteer leaders enrolled in the New Mexico 4-H Youth Development Program are required to sign and abide by the NM 4-H Code of Conduct for youth and adults. In addition, San Juan County 4-H Rodeo participants must also sign a separate 4-H rodeo code of conduct form. Parents and/or guardians of 4-H rodeo participants are required to sign the following adult code of conduct contract regarding responsible behavior at all 4-H activities, including 4-H rodeos. This form must accompany the youth rodeo entry form in order for youth to be eligible to participate in San Juan County 4-H Rodeos.

The positive influence of caring, capable and responsible adults plays an important role in the lives of youth and the 4-H Youth Development Program. Adults working with 4-H youth are charged to lead by example and create a sense of belonging for the youth they support. Therefore, the adult, by signing this form agrees to conduct him or herself in a responsible manner and abide by all expectations as stated.

Expectations:

- To cooperate with, support and empower adult staff and the rodeo committee as they facilitate the 4-H rodeo program.
- To oversee the health, safety and whereabouts of the youth while at rodeo events and activities.
- To abide by the same rules as the youth as spelled out in their code of conduct, 4-H appropriate clothing guidelines, and use or possession of alcohol, drugs or weapons, before, during or after an event.
- To orient youth participants as to expectations of dress, manners, safety, punctuality, etc. for the event and to answer concerns and questions of the youth.
- To enforce all written and signed behavior expectations established for youth participating in the 4-H Youth Development program.
- To refrain from causing or demonstrating conflict with other parents, volunteers, chaperones or 4-H agents in front of youth.
- To act in the best interest of the youth in the event of an emergency.
- To communicate with fellow adults and youth in an appropriate manner with no swearing, cursing or abusive language in all forms of communication, including social media.
- To avoid sexual contact of any type with youth and/or personal displays of affection with other adults in the presence of youth.
- To not ignore situations involving bullying, hazing or harassment, nor fail to intervene if youth are being threatened, humiliated, or intimidated by other youth or adults.

I understand that as an adult I should model positive behaviors and lead by example. I also understand that my behavior not only affects the youth, but the entire 4-H Youth Development Program and that I represent myself, my son or daughter's 4-H club, San Juan County 4-H and the overall State 4-H Program. Therefore, I have read and understand the expectations related to the Code of Conduct for Adults and agree to be bound by it.
