

ZANE WEBSTER

CONTACT INFORMATION

San Juan County
Cooperative
Extension Office
213-A S Oliver Dr
Aztec, NM 87410

Office:

(505) 334-9496

Cell:

(520) 507-0195

zwebster@
nmsu.edu

Education

University of Arizona

August 2019

Masters of Science in Agricultural Education with a Professional Development Emphasis

Texas Tech University

August 2017

Bachelor of Science in Animal Science; Production Option

Connors State College

May 2015 - Associate of Science in Animal Science

Work Experience

4-H Agriculture Extension Agent – New Mexico State University

- Provide leadership & guidance to extension educational programs for 4-H youth, adults, clubs, and special interest groups.
- Oversee 4-H agriculture, livestock, shooting sports, and rodeo project work and programs; coach agriculture and livestock judging contests and assist 4-H members in preparation for livestock shows and fairs.
- Assist with 4-H County Council, officer trainings, and other youth development leadership experiences on the county, district, state, and national level.
- Collaborate with community serving agencies to further Extension 4-H youth development programs.
- Recruit train and support adult volunteers.

Head Coach, Livestock Judging Team - University of Arizona

- Instruct students in the understanding of livestock evaluation
- Identify and pursue resources to enhance the program
- Create budgets and analysis of spending, manage team finances
- Create curriculum to help livestock judges expand their knowledge of not only evaluation, but also the livestock industry in general
- Coordinate with faculty, students, and agriculturalists to create learning environments for students

ZANE WEBSTER

- Host and organize the Arizona Association FFA Livestock Judging Contest

Instructor, ACBS 396A: Senior Livestock Judging Seminar (2019 Spring Semester) - University of Arizona

- Created curriculum for courses
- Evaluated students on progress in course and scheduled educational opportunities for students to participate
- Took students to national competitions to represent the University of Arizona
- Assigned evaluation scores
- Scheduled events plans
- Used the class and activities involved to promote the college of agriculture

Instructor, ACBS 496B: Senior Livestock Judging Seminar (2018 Fall Semester) - University of Arizona

- Created curriculum for courses
- Evaluated students on progress in course and scheduled educational opportunities for students to participate in
- Assigned evaluation scores
- Scheduled events plans

Instructor, ACBS 297B: Introduction to Competitive Livestock Judging (2018 Fall Semester) - University of Arizona

- Created curriculum for courses
- Evaluated students on progress in course and scheduled educational opportunities for students to participate in
- Assigned evaluation scores

Teaching Assistant, ACBS 102R: Introduction to Animal Science (2018 Fall Semester) - University of Arizona

- Facilitated positive learning environment
- Collaborated with head instructors and faculty on how to deliver content effectively
- Lectured on select topics and graded assignments
- Worked with students in collaborative learning environments

Teaching Assistant, ACBS 102L: Introduction to Animal Science Lab (2018 Fall Semester) - University of Arizona

- Facilitated a teaching laboratory
- Collaborated with head instructors and faculty on how to deliver content effectively
- Graded assignments
- Communicated with students on course progress/evaluation

ZANE WEBSTER

JBS Meats Intern (2016 Summer) – Tolleson, AZ

- Assisted with daily activities in a beef processing plant
- Found solutions to the packing plant's issues
- Worked with employees in human resources
- Used communication skills to present my projects to plant leaders as well as worked alongside and assisted in managing managed employees

Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) Intern (2015 Summer) – Safford, AZ

- Became proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, Windows Outlook
- Became familiar with Pipe Design, and government-based engineering programs
- Worked alongside engineers and increased my knowledge of irrigation design, land management
- Used public speaking and communication skills to talk to farmers and ranchers

Substitute Teacher San Simon Schools – (Fall 2017 and Spring 2018) - San Simon, AZ

- Taught in junior high and high school classrooms in the absence of teachers
- Maintained order and a positive learning environment

Ranch/Farm Work (Seasonal since 2011) - San Simon, AZ

- Learned proper animal husbandry to reduce stress level in cattle
- Provided vaccinations and other medicine needed to improve livestock health
- Managed ranch watering systems

Pure Water Ice and Tea Company (April 2017 to September 2017) – Lubbock, TX

- Worked in sales focusing on maximizing profits
- Promoted items and sales of certain items
- Work with public and developed strong social skills

Extracurricular Activities and Achievements

Texas Tech University

- Livestock Judging Team
 - 2016 National Championship Team
 - Volunteered at judging camps as well as 4-H and FFA field days
- Block & Bridle Club
 - Volunteered at Impact Lubbock, Campus
 - Volunteered within the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources

Connors State College

- Livestock Judging Team
 - 2015 Collegiate All American
 - Volunteered at camps, field days, and bull testing facility

ZANE WEBSTER

- Agricultural Ambassadors
 - Vice-President
 - Volunteered across campus and promoted agriculture at junior events and conventions
- Mentor Program
 - Assisted professors with helping other students with academic needs or helped student personally by providing a support system.

Curriculum / Studies

Masters Project (2019):

Created a curriculum that helps teach 4-H and FFA students the basics of livestock judging and oral reasons. Created handouts conducive to that educational process.